Advance in Pensions.

A Statement from the Interior Department.

WHAT SECRETARY NOBLE SAYS,

He Re-calls the Order of Commissioner Tanner in Certain Cases—His Reason for So Doing Fully Explained.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The following authoritative statement, prepared at the interior department, in support of the action of Secretary Noble in rescinding Commissioner Tanner's order advancing pensions from $2 to $4 per month in certain cases, has been given to the press:

In view of the recent decision by the department of the interior, relating to the authority of the commissioner of pensions to arbitrarily, on his own motion, to re-rate some 33,000 men advancing their pension on his order from $2 to $4 per month, it is worthy of attention that Section 4793 of the revised statutes of the United States provides that "except in cases of permanent specific disabilities no increase of pension shall be allowed to commence prior to the date of the examining surgeon's certificate establishing the same made under the pending claim for increase." and also that a rating made by the commissioner of pensions, except in certain cases where by law a specified amount is attached by statute to the disability named, is determined by the degree of disability found by a medical examination of the claimant.

Thus where a claimant's disability is total, he is given under the statute a fixed amount. This was formerly $3, and is now fixed at different amounts for different cases; among other $18 total, and the amount that would be $3 for a "total disability" is subdivided into fractions, that is less than total for the lesser degrees of disability. Thus if one man is found to be very little disabled by the medical board, he is given one-eighth, or $1; or he is still more disabled, two-eighths or $2; and if still more disabled, three-eighths or four-eighths, and so on. If a man, for instance, has lost a portion of his finger, and is thus to an appreciable degree disabled, he may have been rated by the examining board at $4 for that; and so in some other case for some other slight disability.

If, however, he has suffered from chills or malaria, or some other disability contracted by him by exposure in the swamps during his service as a soldier, and which may not prove permanent, or may increase, he may have been thought slightly disabled, if at all, and entitled, at the beginning at least, to a small fraction of total, say $2, which is the amount fixed in many of the disabilities allowed. In this latter case it might possibly have been a question with the board whether he was to get anything, or was disabled at all; but from a lenient construction of his case they have given him $2.

If now by an order of the commissioner, without regard to this medical examination, he men who have been receiving $2 are advanced to $4, without the man who was more disabled, and who had been rated at $4, being himself advanced, it is obvious that injustice is done to the higher graded man, because he is put upon a par with a man evidently less disabled. And so between soldier and soldier, there is an unfair preference of the less injured. If these cases, however, are all referred to the examining surgeons and they find the disability to be equal to $4, and it is then allowed, everything has been done in due order and according to law and upon a basis that any man can understand and which will have limits fixed by medical knowledge, experience and professional reputation.

On the contrary, if arbitrary orders of the commissioner are the basis it must result that a few are made favorites and given a particular amount, and the great mass of the men who have to depend upon medical examinations are put at a great disadvantage. Therefore it was decided that there was no authority in law for an order arbitrarily increasing a great mass of men's pensions in the face of the statute already cited, and which order is not extended to all the pensioners' cases.

The commissioner, whose order has given rise to this decision, in his recent letter to Mr. Dalzell, did not claim that his order was to be construed according to its terms, for he said:

"While commissioner I issued the orders which I thought, and still think, were mighty good ones; first, that the 33,000 men on the pension roll at less than $4 a month should all, unless they had had a medical examination within a year, be ordered for examination before their home board, with a view to putting them up to at least $4 a month pension, or drop them off the rolls, for it was and is my opinion that, for a man who is worthy of any pension at all, $1 a week is small enough to consider a pension."

The order itself read:

In all cases where a pensionable disability is found, the rate allowed shall not be less than $4 per month to date, from and including March 27, 1889.

The decision that was made by the assistant secretary is in accordance with these two propositions. The commissioner announced one before he resigned his office; the other, after, to Mr. Dalzell. The assistant secretary takes them together and not separately. The order as made was arbitrary, unqualified, and required an advance without examination to the amount specified at $4 per month. It did not propose to drop any one, as the letter pretended it did, and it did not order any one for examination before the home board, as the letter pretended it did. It was an unauthorized, unqualified and illegal order for every pensioner to be advanced to $4, who was receiving less; it was made April 25, and it was proposed to have it take effect March 27.

A slight consideration of this matter will show that to give $36,000 a month of the public money on such an order as this would be but the beginning of a system by which millions could be expended, uncontrolled by law, as it was unauthorized by precedent. There would be no more harm in giving to Senator Manderson $4,000 or more than there would be in giving to 33,000 men $36,000. In either case it would be an unauthorized distribution of the public money, and the door of the treasury might as well be open to actual invasion as to have such warrants drawn upon it to be cashed without questioning.

It is also obvious that such a course as this would not be of benefit to the soldiers ultimately, as it is intended only to benefit those who are the least disabled; in other words, those who have the least claim for disability. If one may judge that these men are to be advanced upon a mere opinion as to what should be the least amount of pension, the other might justly claim that their more severe wounds and disabilities are quite as uncompensated as those of less degree. In other words, whenever the opinion of a commissioner without investigation is substituted for actual examination as to disability, every man's pension is put at risk, either to be so exaggerated as that the government or people would not allow it, or to be so disparaged as that nothing could be obtained.

If you can drop a man who is receiving $2 per month from the pension rolls on a mere opinion of a commissioner, you can drop off a great many others receiving more on the same principle. It is a mere question of whim and caprice. It is upon this that it has been insisted that the law should be adhered to, and the precedents established should have weight.

It must also be obvious in all this that there is no expression, as there is no disposition to prevent any deserving soldier from receiving all the pension his disability entitles him to, either by original application, or application for increase. All that is being done is to maintain the law, to be liberally construed, but by no means disregarded, and to allow each in his turn without partiality all he is entitled to.

If the law is abandoned, the weak, the distant, and those without powerful friends will suffer, while favorites will flourish.

Desperate Fight With Knives.

LEBANON, Mo., Oct. 17.—A desperate fight with knives occurred Tuesday between two farmers in the neighborhood of Spring Hollow, near here. The daughter of J. W. Hardy became greatly attached to S. H. Lamson. Her father forbade her having anything to do with the young man, and Tuesday when Hardy met her riding behind Lamson on a horse he ordered her to dismount. The girl obeyed, and this so enraged Lamson that he attacked Hardy with a knife, plunging it into his body no less than twelve times. Hardy managed to push his weapon and inflicted five wounds on his adversary's body. It is reported that neither can recover.

Schooner Collide.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Oct. 17.—During Sunday's storm the fishing schooners Guilp and Nannie collided in Cuttyhunk harbor and the Nannie sank. Her crew got aboard the Guilp, but as the latter vessel was in danger her crew consisting of Capt. John Flanders, Arthur Borden and Samuel Peckham started for shore in a boat to get the life-saving crew. The boat upset and all three were drowned. The crew of the humane society received the crew of the Nannie. Capt. Flanders was one of the best known pilots in these waters.

Decided Against the Western Union.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 17.—The suit of the city against the Western Union Telegraph company for license fees of $1 a pole and $1.50 a mile of wire, for the years 1855-6-7-8, resulted in a verdict for the complainant Wednesday in the United States circuit court for $14,498.43. A similar suit brought against the Western Union and decided against them by the supreme court, was settled by the payment of the license fees for 1883-4, but the company resisted the payment for the above mentioned period, and hence the present suit.

A Divorced Mother's Crime.

SANTA ANA, Cal., Oct. 17.—Mrs. Ellie I. Scholl was found at her home in Rustin, Wednesday morning, with her throat cut, and her two children, a boy aged 5 and a girl aged 3, were found dead beside her, with their throats also cut. Mrs. Scholl had killed the children and attempted suicide, but she will probably recover. Her husband, from whom she was divorced three years ago, was trying to gain possession of the children, and it is believed that this caused her to commit the crime.

Rat Catchers in Public Service.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The employment of a rat catcher for the White House at $10 a day is not an entirely new feature in governmental expenditure. The British book of estimates for the civil service last year contains two items for rat catchers, one in Buckingham palace at $5 a year, and the other at Windsor at £10 a year. The American plan is more adapted to modern ways.

A Vessel Long Over Due.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 17.—It is generally believed among shipping men here that Capt. Regal and his crew of eleven men on the German bark Duppel have been lost. The Duppel is ninety-eight days out from Liverpool with a cargo of salt.

Railroad Collisions.

Fifty Passengers Injured Near Omaha, Nebraska.

THE WRECKAGE TAKES FIRE.

Many of the Wounded are Severely Burned in Addition to Their Other Injuries—Three People Killed on the Texas Pacific—Result of Other Wrecks.

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 17.—A collision between two trains on the Burlington and Missouri River railroad at Gibson, a few miles from Omaha, Wednesday evening, resulted in injury to at least fifty passengers and the complete demolition of two engines, a chair car and a combination car. Gibson is the meeting point for the two trains, but the westbound train was slightly behind time, and just crossed the spur when the eastbound train struck the rear end, which was still on the main line, and hurled both engines and the two coaches from the track.

The combination coach and chair car were both crowded with passengers and the chair car after being overturned caught fire, many of the passengers being burned in addition to their other injuries. The exact number of the injured has not yet been ascertained.

Peter Reuland, proprietor of the Tremont house in this city, was so severely injured that he died shortly after being taken to the hospital.

Mary Butler, of South Omaha, had a hand crushed, and was badly bruised about the body. She is in a precarious condition.

Charles Lauro, of Craig, Mo., had an ear cut off, his face severely cut and his body and lower limbs badly bruised. He is also in an almost hopeless condition.

Engineer Gillespie, of the east-bound train, was badly bruised about the body.

Henry S. Weller, of the Richardson Drug company, Omaha, was badly out and bruised about the head and shoulders.

The following of the injured are at the Millard hotel:

E. Mix, of New York; shoulder dislocated and lower limbs badly bruised.

Francis Elder, of New York, representing the William Dement company; bruised, and thought to have received internal injuries.

Fred. Schultz, of New York; slightly cut about the head and face.

J. Falkenberg, of Chicago; lower limbs bruised and shoulder dislocated.

The following are at the Murray: G. W. Chaffee, of Boston, slightly bruised about the body.

Isaac Labold, of Cincinnati, injured about the shoulders and head, but not seriously.

J. Kalisher, of New York, shoulder sprained and bruised about the body.

S. Kemper, of Buffalo, bruised about the body, head slightly cut and lower limbs bruised.

Isaac W. Hooks, of Hartford, injured about the body, is at the Paxton.

Of the train men Conductor Loverin, of the westbound train, had his right lower limb badly bruised, and amputation may be necessary.

Engineer McGov, of the same train, was slightly bruised about the body. The two firemen, Haskins and Martin, escaped with slight injuries.

Wreck in Indiana.

LEBANON, Ind., Oct. 17.—A gravel train on the Millard railway, consisting of a locomotive and two cars carrying a force of hands to their work, collided with a box car being loaded at Heath's station Wednesday morning, and utterly demolished the cars. Sherman Moon, of Chicago, was crushed into a shapeless mass under the wreck. Several others were injured, the most serious being Oliver Heath, of Lebanon, Ind., and John Fitch, of Lexington, Indiana.

Three Killed on the Texas Pacific.

EL PASO, Tex., Oct. 17.—A wreck occurred on the Texas & Pacific railway at Madden, about sixty miles west of this place. A washout threw a freight engine and several cars down an embankment. Engineer R. J. Bible, recently of St. Louis, and Fireman Charles Jones were caught under the side of the engine and literally roasted to death. Brakeman G. W. Mansfield was also killed.

One in Pennsylvania.

HAZLETON, Pa., Oct. 17.—An engine on the Lehigh Valley ran into the caboose of a gravel train at Lattimer, near this city, Wednesday morning, smashing the engine and caboose and injuring Thomas Reed, John Bliss, and an unknown Hungarian. Reed's skull was fractured, and it is thought he will die. The balance of the laborers and train hands had a narrow escape.

NATURAL GAS KNOCKED OUT,

If the Claims of a Pittsburg Company Are Based on Fact.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 17.—The Fuel Gas and Electric Engineering company, of which George Westinghouse, Jr., is the principal stockholder, yesterday announced that mechanism had been perfected whereby artificial fuel gas could be produced at a less cost than is expended in piping natural gas from the wells. The process is yet a secret, as all the patents are not yet secured. The company promises to be able to furnish the gas very shortly.

Failed to Harmonize.

ALBURN, N. Y., Oct. 17.—After the 200th fruitless ballot the Twenty-sixth district Republican convention adjourned, to meet Tuesday at Ithaca.

A MINE DISASTER.

Sixty Lives Lost by an Explosion in England.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—An explosion occurred in the Bentilee colliery, at Longton, county of Stafford, at an early hour yesterday morning. Seventy miners were in the pit, only eleven of whom are alive. The men engaged in a search for victims found fifty bodies.

The bodies recovered show that the victims died of gas poisoning. The rescuers were compelled to relinquish their search by the accumulation of gas. It was hoped that the search would be resumed at midnight, but the latest advices from the scene state that a fire is raging and that another explosion is feared. The underground manager is among the victims. The record of the men down the mine has been lost, hence it is impossible to verify the number.

Of the fifty bodies so far taken out, not a single one has been identified, as the features in every case were so frightfully burned that recognition, even by those nearest and dearest, proved impossible. In most cases the clothing was also completely burned off the bodies of the victims, and it is feared that but few of the fifty scorched bodies now lying in two rooms on each side of the road, a feet from the mouth of the shaft, will ever be identified by the wives and mothers, whose wails for their dead are ringing out dolefully everywhere. An old man and his three sons, who were in the mine when the explosion occurred, were lost, and when the news was brought home to the old man's wife, the mother of the boys, and the only surviving member of the family, she dropped dead almost without a word, the shock having killed her.

The latest estimate is that sixty persons were killed. A relief fund has been started. It is supposed that the explosion was caused by leakage from an old fire in a disused seam.

An old man and his three sons who were in the mine when the explosion occurred were lost, and when the news was brought home to the old man's wife, the mother of the boys and the only surviving member of the family, she dropped dead almost without a word, the shock killed her.

MURDEROUS HIGHWAYMEN.

St. Louis Travelling Salesman Robbed and Shot Near Jasper, Ind.

HUNTINGBURG, Ind., Oct. 17.—Burglars and footpads are taking this section of the country. About 11 o'clock last night as Andy Berks, a prominent citizen, was going to his home, he was held up by two masked men, who relieved him of $200 in cash and a valuable gold watch.

Yesterday evening about 8 o'clock A. T. Speers, drummer for a St. Louis house, was halted on the public road between Jasper and this city by three men. They pulled him from his buggy, and, after taking all his valuables, including his sample cases and $32 in money, leaped into the buggy and fled. Speers fired at the fleeing highwaymen. They immediately returned the fire, one of their bullets striking Speers in the left shoulder, making a dangerous wound. The wounded man was brought to town by farmers who were attracted to the spot by the pistol shots. A posse is now out in search of the highwaymen.

S. RICKEN PEELE.

One Hundred Cases of Small-Pox on the Island.

SANDUSKY, O., Oct. 17.—About three weeks ago Dr. E. T. Schneider, of Pelee island, was taken ill with a disease which proved to be small-pox. Before the cause of the disease became known over 200 people, including about sixty school children, were exposed to it.

To-day word comes from Pelee that there are nearly one hundred cases of the disease on the island. Inhabitants of that place who have not yet contracted the disease are panic-stricken. The Canadian government has established quarantine against the island, and all neighboring American ports not now quarantined will be closed against it to-morrow, thus shutting the stricken people out from all communication with the outer world. The state board of health was notified to-day by the mayor of this city, and requested to establish a quarantine here at once, and thus stop all boats from coming here from Pelee.

Elect a Return from Montana.

HELENA, Mont., Oct. 17.—The count of votes in all the counties is completed and it is probable that there will be no other contest besides the one in Silver Bow county. As the legislature now stands, counting the Silver Bow delegation as returned by the judges of election, the Democrats have a majority in the legislature on joint ballot of 3 with one seat a tie. Should the action of the canvassing board in throwing out the Tunnel precinct be upheld by the courts the Republicans will gain four members of the Silver Bow delegation and have a majority on joint ballot of 5. The hearing of the contest case is set for Nov. 7.

A Cowardly Wife Killer.

TROY, N. Y., Oct. 17.—Harvey Hodge Wednesday morning murdered his wife by cutting her throat at Cambridge, Washington county. Hodge had been held in jail on a charge of abusing his wife, but was released on bail Monday and returned home. After killing his wife, Hodge threatened to cut his own throat, but was too cowardly to inflict more than a slight wound. He feigns lunacy. Hodge is about 50 years old.

Limiting Electric Light Currents.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—The board of health has recommended to the mayor that the tension on alternating current electric light wires be limited to 250 volts, and that steps be taken to prevent that limit being exceeded.

THURSDAY, OCT. 17, 1889.

FORAKER isn't cutting such a wide swath now in Ohio as he used to do. The ballot-box boomerang seems to have knocked him out.

The Cincinnati Post, an independent paper, says the ballot box boomerang has caused a rise in Hon. James E. Campbell stock that will without doubt elect him Governor of the State. So mote it be.

The Catlettsburg Democrat says the Republicans are having a monkey and parrot fight over the postoffice at that place, and adds that when the struggle is ended nothing will be left of the g. o. p. there "except a tail feather and it will be in the office."

C. F. TWEED has been placed on the Republican ticket for Treasurer over in Brown County in place of his brother John A. Tweed, whose health would not permit of his making the race. Frank W. Dunham, of Georgetown, has been placed on the ticket as a candidate for State Senator in place of Colonel John W. Henry, who declined.

MURRAY CITY, O., October 16.—The house of George Washington, a peaceable colored man, was last night burned to the ground by residents of this place. Their excuse is that they want no colored people in the place. The poor fellow lost all his household goods.

The above is a special to the Cincinnati Evening Post. The Post has been harping a good deal of late about the "race troubles" in the South. It should turn its attention now to its own State.

The full extent of Tanner's great prodigality in the pension office is becoming more and more apparent every day. One by one his rulings are being reversed and that too by the Republicans who were placed in charge of the department, when the "looter" was fired. One of the latest reversals is that by Secretary Noble, who decided that the re-rating of Senator Manderson's pension was "unwarranted" and the Senator had to pay back several thousand dollars which he would have held onto if Tanner had been kept in office.

EARNHAM Post No. 485, G. A. R., of New York, "hit the nail on the head" when it resolved that

The only veterans who are of right entitled to pensions are those whose pecuniary circumstances are so unfortunate as to justify them in burdening the country with their support, and who, by wounds or disability incurred in the service of the country as combatants, are prevented from earning a living in their respective callings; as they might have done had such wounds or disabilities not been incurred.

Here's another shot at the "looters" by the same Post:

Resolved, That any old soldier who applies for or accepts a pension except under the conditions above set forth, is, in the opinion of this post, guilty of conduct calculated to injure the good men who were, and are willing to give their blood and their lives for their country, without any reward beyond the approval of their consciences and that honorable fame which is dear to every patriot.

CONNECTICUT is to be congratulated on the success of her new election system. A special from Hartford says:

"The ballot law used at the recent contest has many of the features of the Australian system, and the numerous changes wrought in some localities are taken as a significant illustration of the way it might operate if universally applied. Norwich, for instance, went Democratic for the first time since the organization of the Republican party. The town was known as the 'citadel of Connecticut Republicans,' and the secret ballot which prevented the driving of the mill hands to the polls to vote en bloc at the behest of their employers had undoubtedly much to do with this change of faith. Tataville, which went Republican last year by its seven, went Democratic by over forty this year, and similar results are reported from many other places. Each voter was compelled to prepare his ballot in one of the numerous little booths provided for that purpose, and secured by closed doors, place his ballot in envelope and seal that envelope before he could legally go to the ballot box and deposit. There was not much chance for vote-buying or bulldozing."

A law of that kind is needed in every State. A secret ballot is the only way to put end to corruption at the polls.

Cut-throat Politics in Ohio.

Senator Sherman's opening speech in the Ohio campaign must have been a disagreeable surprise to the Forakerites and Stalwarts like Murat Halstead. He devoted most of his attention to national issues, and his allusions to the candidates for Governor were comprised in a dozen sentences. Foraker he dismissed with a most ingenious dig under the ribs, declaring that he could see no objection to his having a third term. "If he has performed his duties exceptionally well in the past," he said, "it is good reasons why should be continued in office in the future."

Mr. Campbell the Senator speaks of a little more warmly. In the face of the vituperative abuse of Mr. Halstead, who had not then retracted his attack on Mr. Campbell, he declares him a man of ability and merit, who would be a creditable Governor.

The Senator however, is perfectly justified in his lack of enthusiasm. Governor

D. HUNT & SON,

SECOND STREET.

Foraker and his Cincinnati "stranglers" have been playing cut-throat politics until they have buried the Senator's presidential chances. But the shoe is on the other foot now. It is the Senator's turn to play cut-throat politics, and he is doing it with considerable skill.—New York Star.

STANLEY L. POTTER'S DEATH.

His Neck Broken by the Elevator at His Place of Business—Particulars of the Sad Affair.

Brief notice was made yesterday of the accident that resulted in the instant death of Stanley L. Potter, of Cincinnati. He was a member of the Miner-Rossiter Furniture Company, and the sad occurrence happened at their place of business, No. 202, Race street, that city, at 8 o'clock yesterday morning.

A pipe connected with the heating apparatus at the store burst, filling the cellar and elevator shaft with steam. The Times-Star says Mr. Potter, in his concern for the engineer, opened the elevator door and called to him. The escaping steam prevented Mr. Potter seeing or hearing the descending cab, and he was caught and almost instantly killed, his neck being broken.

The Post says: "The young man was thirty-two years old and unmarried. He was a son of the Rev. S. S. Potter, of the Herald and Presbyterian, and a nephew of Dr. J. G. Montfort. He lived at 21 Foraker avenue, Walnut Hills, with his parents. Mr. Potter had been a member of the firm since its organization, nine months ago. He was a graduate of the Woodward High School and for some years was in the employ of the C. and O. Railway as draughtsman, a position which he left to go into the furniture business. He was a gentleman who stood in high repute socially, both by virtue of his own character and family connections. The deceased was one of the most active young men in the First Presbyterian Church of Walnut Hills. His brother, Rev. James L. Potter, missionary to Persia, left only last week."

During the construction of the river division of the C. and O. Railroad, Mr. Potter held the position of draughtsman in the office of Chief Engineer Colonel C. B. Child, at this place, and won the esteem of all by his exemplary conduct, both in his social and business life. His many friends were grieved to learn of his sudden death, and sympathize with the family in their bereavement.

NUPTIAL KNOTS.

The Kellum-Biedle Marriage at Aberdeen and Roff-Warder Wedding at Mayslick.

The marriage of Mr. William Kellum and Miss Margarita Biedle at Aberdeen last evening was attended by a large crowd of the friends and relatives of the contracting parties.

The nuptials were solemnized at 6:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. G. M. Fulton, of Amelia, O., officiating. There were no attendants. Prof. Frost, of this city, presided at the organ. The bride, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. A. Riedle, was attired in a lovely costume of gray faille silk, while the groom wore full evening suit. Mr. Kellum resides at Norwalk, O., where he is engaged in the dry goods business as a member of the firm of Kellum & Hull. The wedding presents were numerous, and were very elegant.

After the ceremony the party discussed a sumptuous wedding feast, consisting of all the delicacies of the season. The newly-wedded couple took the F. V. at 9 o'clock. The bridal trip will embrace Washington City, New York and other cities in the East.

THE ROFF-WARDER NUPTIALS.

The society event of the week at Mayslick was the marriage of Mr. Sanford H. Roff and Miss Maria L. Warder last evening.

The couple have a host of warm friends and the Christian Church, handsomely decorated for the occasion, was crowded. The ceremony took place at 6:30 o'clock, Elder F. M. Tinder, pastor of the church, officiating. The attendants were Dr. M. H. Davis, of that place, and Miss Margaret Finch, of this city.

Messrs. Shotwell Roff, Seymour Myall, Walter, Forman and John Mitchell acted as ushers.

The happy couple left this morning for Paris where they will be the attendants at the Davis-Hunkill nuptials this afternoon.

The Portsmouth Tribune says: "Two piano 'frauds' have been working Champaign, Clark and Madison counties. They had cheap pianos sent them from New York, unstenciled. Whenever they sold a piano, always at a high figure, they stamped it with the name of the manufacturer desired by the buyer. The moral to this is to always buy of a reliable home dealer."

It is astonishing, observes an exchange, how many instances there are of farmers signing their names to documents offered them by strangers, which afterwards prove to be something quite different from what they supposed--generally promissory notes.

At Portsmouth, Judge Dever has granted a new trial Dr. J. E. Clark the veterinary surgeon who is charged with horse stealing. The Blade says: "The ruling of the court gives general satisfaction, as few who know the circumstances believed in the defendant's guilt. The circumstances of the case were published in the BULLETIN several months ago. Clark spent some time in this city previous to going to Ohio."

THE BULLETIN has a straight tip that Deputy Collector Robert L. Baldwin will be succeeded by Mr. John G. Wadsworth about the first of the new year, perhaps sooner. Colonel Goodloe was anxious to retain Mr. Baldwin, but the Republicans have been kicking so hard that he couldn't stand the pressure and has signified his intention of making the change. He will not find any one who will prove more faithful and efficient in the discharge of the duties of the office than Mr. Baldwin. Mr. Wadsworth, however, is a clever gentleman, thoroughly qualified for the position and his friends will be glad to see him get the appointment.

Locomotive Engineers

Proceedings of the Brotherhood Assembly

IN SESSION IN DENVER, COL.

Chief Engineer Arthur Presides and Gives an Account of the Present Standing of the Order—Membership of the Order and Amount of Benefits Paid.

DENVER, Col., Oct. 17.—The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers assembled in annual session in this city yesterday, Chief Engineer Arthur presiding. After welcoming the delegates and assuring them of his belief in the satisfactory results of the present convention, and with what great pleasure he had watched the growth of the order since its organization and the results it had attained.

Chief Arthur said: "The present time represents the turning point in the history of the order, for it has become apparent that a feeling essentially radical has crept in and taken possession of a few of our members. This is dangerous and must be suppressed; for, owing to this, statements seemingly contradictory have crept out and become public which could never have happened had there been a oneness of thought and an honesty of purpose. If a man's ability extends beyond that required by the Brotherhood, then it becomes his duty to doff the begrimed habiliments of the mechanic, and assume that position for which he is particularly gifted. To nurse one's dissatisfaction, and scatter its seeds broadcast, to take root in the imaginations of other men, is sinful and blighting to character."

He admonished the members to keep their personality intact and not to allow false gods to induce them to subscribe to laws, which, as soon as passed, will make them cognizant of the necessity for appeal. He reiterated with emphasis his former statement that the organization was law abiding, and said: "Today I clearly define our position toward railroad corporations when I say that only as a last resort do we sanction a strike."

Mr. Arthur stated the membership of the order as 28,000; benefits paid during the year, $304,000; total since organization, $2,008,193. He urged his members to save as much as possible, and dwell upon the advantages of property. He said he would submit special recommendations later. The address contained no reference to federation, nor to the Burlington strike. Those omissions caused much disappointment. The convention then adjourned for the day.

THE INCLINE PLANE ACCIDENT.

Experts Fail to Discover the Real Cause of the Disaster.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 17.—The terrible accident on the Mt. Auburn incline plane yesterday still continues to be the topic of conversation on the streets and in places of business. It does not seem that the blame, if there is any to be attached, has yet been located. Messrs. Henry Korb and John Fehrenbuth, the two experts appointed on the day of the accident by Coroner Rendigs to make an examination of the machinery and general investigation of the case, are not yet ready to report, and announce that they will have nothing official to submit until they are called to testify in the coroner's inquest.

The unidentified body at the morgue, supposed to be Mrs. Shaffer, proved to be Mrs. Russell Errett. At 6 p. m. a middle-aged gentleman called at the morgue and passed through the dead room. "My God, my wife!" he shrieked, as the mangled face was revealed, and he was left alone with the poor clay that had been his life-partner. Mrs. Errett was on her way to the hill to inspect a dwelling house. Her husband who does not come home for lunch did not learn of her protracted absence from home until 6 p. m. He read in the evening papers of the mangled unidentified corpse and with an awful dread upon him he visited the morgue, to find his bitterest anticipations only too true. Mrs. Errett was a daughter of George E. Ghoss, a former well known banker here, now living in Denver, Col.

Still Looking for Jurymen.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—In the Cronin case yesterday morning the four veniremen carried over from the previous day were accepted by the defense and tendered to the prosecution. Two of them were at once challenged for cause by the state because of their scruples against inflicting the death penalty. The examination of veniremen was then resumed. The report current last night that Messrs. Forrest and Wing had withdrawn from the defense was denied by both gentlemen this morning, and they occupied their usual places in the court room.

Caused by Jealousy.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 17.—Charles Heidreich, a young man who scarcely a month ago arrived at his majority, living in Coryville, a suburb of this city, last night deliberately shot and killed his young wife and then put a bullet through his own brain. Jealousy was the cause.

A Town Threatened With Fire.

EATON, O., Oct. 17.—At 3 o'clock this morning a big fire was raging at Camdeu, near here, and the whole town threatened with destruction. The fire department of this city has been called there. Particulars are not obtainable at this hour.

WITHDRAWS FROM THE RACE.

General William H. Powell Does Not Want to Be Pension Commissioner.

BELLEVILLE, Ill., Oct. 17.—Gen. William H. Powell, of this city, a candidate for commissioner of pensions, returned from Washington lately. He was there informed that his letters and endorsements were all that could be desired, but was given no assurance that he would receive the appointment. Gen. Powell has now concluded to withdraw from the race, and has mailed the following letter to Secretary Noble:

DEAR SECRETARY:—Since my return home from my personal interview with you on the 8th inst., though advised to await developments, I have decided, in view of the present complicating and embarrassing new conditions governing the election of a successor to Corporal James Tanner to respectfully withdraw my application for appointment to the office of commissioner of pensions. Yours truly, W. H. POWELL.

Meeting of Laborers.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 17.—At a special meeting of the trades assembly of this city last night the action of the striking bakers was endorsed. Bakers unions No. 2 and 4 have issued an appeal for public support. They claim that the men imported from New York to take the place of union men are green and incapable of doing the work properly. Seven baking firms have been boycotted by the strikers. The lockout has assumed serious proportions, and may become general in the trade.

Laundrymen Meeting.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 17.—In the convention of the Laundrymen's National association yesterday considerable routine business was disposed of. At the evening session it was decided the committee engaged in agitating the Chinese question should continue its labors, and as an additional obstacle in the way of Chinese competition that the members should solicit custom through the papers.

Gas in South Dakota.

SALEM, S. Dak., Oct. 17.—A strong flow of natural gas has been struck on the farm of M. Ducios, three miles northeast of this city, at a depth of sixty feet. The pressure is strong enough to throw gravel and sand thirty feet into the air. It was tested Wednesday, and burns excellently. It roars like the escape valve of a locomotive.

Reception to General Alger.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Gen. Russell A. Alger was Wednesday night tendered a reception at Masonic hall by the members of Lafayette post, G. A. R. A banquet accompanied the reception and many toasts and speeches were made in honor of the distinguished guest. Gen. Alger replied in a felicitous speech.

Complimentary Dinner to Bishop Leonard. NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—A complimentary dinner was tendered Wednesday to the Rev. Dr. W. A. Leonard, lately consecrated Episcopal bishop of southern Ohio, by the New York Alumni of St. Stephen's college. The banquet was largely attended.

South Dakota Elects Senators.

PIERRE, S. Dak., Oct. 17.—Yesterday the legislature met in both branches to elect senators. In the house the vote stood: For R. Pettigrew, 108; Burtlett Tripp, 14; Moody, 107; M. H. Day, 14. In the senate Pettigrew got 14, to Tripp's 4; Moody, 4; Day, 4. To-day the legislature, in joint session, will formally ratify the action of both branches and adjourn until January.

A Murderer's Punishment.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 17.—Several years ago Mrs. Foreman and her daughter were murdered here. Tuesday Mrs. William Manbaum, whose husband is in the insane asylum, reported to the police that her husband did the deed for money, and had several times confessed to her. Two others, whose names he would not give, were implicated. Remorse drove him crazy.

Hearing Argument.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Assistant Attorney General Shields, of the interior department, heard argument on the application of John M. Walker for a review of the interior department decision which holds that soldiers' additional homestead warrants are not assignable. The question involved is an important one and affects a number of cases.
